

Nov 27 1935

Take the 3 and go. The next thing you know he come down and the next thing he done, he tore down the first old fence and that's the way it went.

Q: But you never agreed with them that you owned less then what you originally thought?

A: No, and John Funk said people didn't and they come up from Baltimore.

Q: So Mr. Halley, to go back, the actual dispute was over a few feet of land on one side then, is that correct?

A: Well he was coming every time and add one and he kept taking a little bit more.

Q: But it never got to be more than a few feet, is that correct?

A: I think it was Sutcliffe. Its around about 18, 19 inches.

Q: Very well. Have you always held your property openly, notoriously, hostilely, under claim of title, adversely to all others?

A: When his father come down to give me the deed and it was a mistake. I lived there all the time except when I was trucking.

Q: So have you always held that property under claim of title?

A: Yes, sir.

TO THE GENERAL INTERROGATORY, NOTHING FURTHER.

Haze V. Halley

ROBERT L. HALLEY, one of the witnesses produced on the plaintiff's behalf, after having first been duly sworn by me, deposes and says:

(BY: Mr. Sheffield)

Q: Will you state your full name, your age and your residence please?

A: Robert L. Halley, age 41, Route 1, Box 46, Knoxville, Maryland.

Q: Are you related to Mr. Halley?

A: Yes, sir. I am his son.

(BY: Mr. Tisdale)

Q: Do you know how long your father has lived in the property which he is presently in residence?

A: From heresay, in other words, until I was knowledgable of it, I was born in the house on December 29, 1935. In other words I had no knowledge of
